CHA has a new home on the web!

Please update your bookmarks! The CHA domain has moved to www.civichealthall.com. Despite our new URL, you can still access all the same content as before, including our library of resources, RxVote cards, Civic Health Spotlight, and more.

Speaking of Civic Health Spotlight...

Our Civic Health Spotlights highlight the stories of everyday heroes who are bringing civic engagement into their healthcare settings and communities. We hope you see yourself in these stories and know there's so much you can do in your own community. Please reach out to us if you'd like to nominate a civic health hero for us to chat with at info@civichealthalliance.com.

Rally Your Squad!

Want to get more involved in the fight for healthy democracy, in the context of healthcare and beyond? Mobilize the members of your own community with Rally Your Squad!

Rally Your Squad is a powerful tool hosted by Red Wine & Blue, a national sisterhood of activists working together to combat extremism, one conversation at a time.

All you have to do to participate is visit the Rally page, create an account in your state, and then select the friends and family members you want to engage with -- whether that's by starting a dialogue or by encouraging them to vote!

Not sure what to say? No problem: there's a toolkit for that. Click here to download Red Wine & Blue's comprehensive guide to joining Rally and having impactful conversations with friends.

READY TO RALLY YOUR SQUAD?

We know extremists want to implement their agenda at every level of government but we can defeat them and win these critical elections. How? By making sure our friends and family know what is at stake and turning them out to vote for each and every race on their ballot. Together we will protect our freedoms and our democracy!

Red Wine & Blue is here to support you in this important work. This toolkit has all the information you need to join our Rally Your Squad crew as well as helpful tips on how to talk to family and friends. And we promise to have fun together as well! Look for opportunities throughout the year to join virtual events for Rally Your Squad members, receive messaging on important issues and get the training you need to have effective conversations. Let's do this!

What about the H.R. 1 Bill?

Known in some circles as the “Big, Brutal Bill,” H.R. 1 will defund healthcare for at-risk populations such as those receiving Medicaid and SNAP benefits.

How will this impact clinical care for these populations? How can healthcare workers prepare for the coming changes?

Department of Family and Social Medicine Presents:
